ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 15: Gender, Religion and Caste (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) cabinets remain largely all-male even when a woman heads the government	The chapter says this
2	(d) A is false but R is true.	A is false; R is true
3	(a) Human rights groups demanding protection of religious minorities	It does not treat one religion above others
4	(d) Politics also changes caste identities as caste groups enlarge and form coalitions	Caste gets politicised through political competition
5	(d) Making fair representation of women legally binding	Reservation in panchayats is an example
6	(c) ST (45.8) was higher than SC (35.9)	All groups were 27.0
7	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Candidates need support of several castes
8	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Household responsibilities limit participation
9	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	The sexual division of labour assigns domestic work to women through social stereotypes rather than biology; R explains A.
10	(b) Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A.	Both are true, but the reservation in local bodies does not explain the low representation in the legislatures.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Politics is about power (1); Gender division involves unequal power between men and women (1).	1+1
12	It kills and displaces people (1); It destroys trust among communities (1).	1+1
13	It ensures representation of weaker sections (1); They get a voice in local decisions (1).	1+1
14	Backward caste groups (1); Forward caste groups (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Women agitated for voting rights (1); Legal status and opportunities improved (1); Reservation in local bodies came as a result (1).	1+1+1
16	High participation in Sweden, Norway and Finland (1); India is among the bottom group in the world (1); India lags behind several developing countries too (1).	1+1+1
17	People of different religions are treated as separate nations (1); Leads to exclusion and conflict (1); Northern Ireland shows the dangers (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Constitutional bans are not enough (1); Social change is slow (1); Caste prejudice continues (1).	1+1+1
18	Economic interests differ (1); Men and women of the same caste vote differently (1); They assess governments differently (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Every adult has one vote (1); Leaders needed support of numerous voters (1); New consciousness among low castes (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) A system in which all work inside the home is done by women and work outside by men (1). (ii) It is considered a 'natural' duty of women (1). (iii) The Equal Wages Act (Equal Remuneration Act) (1). (iv) It is not paid and has no market value, so it is not counted in income or the economy even though it is essential (2).	1+1+1+2

20	Gender: positive, women gained rights (1); Religion: communal politics is harmful (1); Caste: gives space to the disadvantaged but can divert attention (1); Healthy expression gives voice without hostility (1); The test is whether it respects equality (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Changes through urbanisation, education, mobility (1); Constitution bans discrimination (1); Yet most marry within caste (1); Untouchability persists (1); Caste linked to poverty and wealth (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying that gender division is biological: the chapter stresses that it is based on social expectations and stereotypes, not on biology.
- Mixing up sexual division of labour (work split by gender) with 'sex ratio' (number of females per 1000 males).
- Writing that India has an official religion; India is a secular state, with no religion given special status.
- Thinking that communalism means practising a religion; it means using religion as the basis of politics and treating one's own religion as superior.
- Claiming that caste alone decides how people vote; the chapter shows that caste is only one factor and voters also consider party and performance.
- Believing that caste has disappeared with urbanisation; caste inequality continues, though it has weakened, and caste in politics can help as well as harm.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
