Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) National People's Party	First national party from the North East
2	(c) Bahujan Samaj Party	Based mostly in Uttar Pradesh
3	(c) dynastic succession	The second challenge
4	(d) Bahujan Samaj Party	Formed government there several times
5	(b) power is concentrated in one or a few leaders	A first challenge to parties
6	(c) loses the seat in the legislature	It brought down defection
7	(b) joining political parties	Quality of democracy depends on public participation
8	(d) affidavit	Required by Supreme Court order
9	(b) parties are not significantly different from one another	The fourth challenge
10	(b) 2012	After the anti-corruption movement

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Parties nominate candidates who raise lots of money (1); Rich people and companies influence party policy (1).	1+1
12	Indian National Congress (1); Bharatiya Janata Party, BSP, CPI-M, AAP or NPP (any one) (1).	1+1
13	Samajwadi Party (1); Rashtriya Janata Dal, Biju Janata Dal, Mizo National Front or Sikkim Democratic Front (any one) (1).	1+1
14	India (1); Governments are formed by coalitions (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Parties are easy to approach (1); They provide access to welfare schemes (1); Parties must be responsive or lose in elections (1).	1+1+1
16	Formed on 26 November 2012 after the anti-corruption movement (1); Stands for accountability, transparency and good governance (1); Formed governments in Delhi and Punjab (1).	1+1+1
17	It appears messy and may lead to instability (1); It allows a variety of interests and opinions to be represented (1); India has such a system because of its diversity (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Through petitions, publicity and agitations (1); Parties lose support if they ignore reform (1); They become serious about reforms (1).	1+1+1
18	At least six per cent of votes in Lok Sabha or Assembly elections in four States (1); At least four seats in the Lok Sabha (1); Recognition by the Election Commission (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Parties are about a part of the society (1); A party stands for some policies and some interests (1); It takes a side on issues (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	One-party: only one party rules; not democratic; China (1); Two-party: power changes between two; USA, UK (1); Multiparty: many parties; coalition governments; India (1); Multiparty is messy but represents many interests (1); No system suits every country (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Parties do not keep membership registers (1); Do not hold meetings or internal elections regularly (1); Ordinary members do not get information or influence (1); Leaders take decisions in the party's name (1); Personal loyalty matters more than principles (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	Large societies need representative democracy (1); Need an agency to gather views and present them (1); To bring representatives together for responsible government (1); Parties support or restrain government (1); Without them nobody is responsible for running the country (1).	1+1+1+1+1

	OR: Parties other than national parties recognised by the Election Commission (1); Examples: Samajwadi Party, RJD, BJD (1); Number and strength increased in last three decades (1); National parties needed alliances (1); Since 1996 State parties joined national coalitions (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Confusing the three party systems: one-party (China), two-party (USA, UK) and multi-party (India).
- Writing that a recognised national party is decided by the government; it is the Election Commission that recognises parties by their vote share and seats.
- Forgetting that parties also do work other than contest elections: make laws, shape public opinion, form and run the government, act as opposition and run welfare schemes.
- Mixing up the party's symbol with its flag; the Election Commission allots election symbols.
- Treating the anti-defection law as a law that stops parties from forming coalitions; it stops legislators from changing sides after being elected.
- Listing the challenges as 'too many parties' only; the NCERT challenges are lack of internal democracy, dynastic succession, money and muscle power and lack of meaningful choice.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
