Mistakes to avoid:

- Confusing the three party systems: one-party (China), two-party (USA, UK) and multi-party (India).

- Writing that a recognised national party is decided by the government; it is the Election Commission that recognises parties by their vote share and seats.
- Forgetting that parties also do work other than contest elections: make laws, shape public opinion, form and run the government, act as opposition and run welfare schemes.
- Mixing up the party's symbol with its flag; the Election Commission allots election symbols.
- Treating the anti-defection law as a law that stops parties from forming coalitions; it stops legislators from changing sides after being elected.
- Listing the challenges as 'too many parties' only; the NCERT challenges are lack of internal democracy, dynastic succession, money and muscle power and lack of meaningful choice.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
