Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) legitimate	It is the people's own government
2	(a) keeps growing, with a few ultra-rich holding a disproportionate share	Those at the bottom find it hard to meet basic needs
3	(b) accountable and responsive to citizens	People have the right to choose their rulers and control them
4	(b) population size and global situation	Also economic priorities and cooperation of other countries
5	(a) promotes equality, dignity and allows room to correct mistakes	The chapter lists these as reasons
6	(d) not impressive	Poverty remains a concern
7	(d) Regular, free and fair elections	Also open public debate and the right to information
8	(c) recognise that democracy is a form of government that only creates conditions	Citizens have to use the conditions
9	(d) the difference was negligible	The gap was only 0.06
10	(d) It guarantees high economic growth	Growth is not guaranteed

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It is based on deliberation and negotiation (1); It follows norms and procedures, but decisions are more acceptable (1).	1+1
12	A government that is the people's own government (1); It is accepted by the people because they elect it (1).	1+1
13	Democracies 3.95 per cent and dictatorships 4.42 per cent (1); In poor countries the difference is negligible (1).	1+1
14	Economic development depends on population size, global situation and cooperation of other countries (1); Economic priorities adopted by the country also matter (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It is people's own government (1); People wish to be ruled by their elected representatives (1); There is overwhelming support for the idea of democracy (1).	1+1+1
16	It develops a procedure to conduct competition (1); Non-democratic regimes suppress differences (1); It helps people learn to respect differences (1).	1+1+1
17	Passion for respect and freedom is the basis of democracy (1); Recognition of equal worth of all, including women (1); Caste-based discrimination lacks moral and legal foundations (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It must be attentive to the needs and demands of the people (1); Citizens can participate in decision making (1); Governments that are not responsive can be replaced (1).	1+1+1
18	It promotes equality among citizens (1); It enhances the dignity of the individual (1); It improves quality of decision making, provides a method to resolve conflicts and allows room to correct mistakes (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Principle of equal treatment is recognised (1); Women can struggle against what is now unacceptable (1); Disadvantaged castes claim equal status and opportunity (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Every individual wants respect (1); Democracies recognise dignity and freedom at least in principle (1); Women's struggles gained moral and legal force (1); Disadvantaged castes can claim equal status (1); Non-democracies lack this legal and moral basis (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Democracy's examination never gets over (1); People ask for more as they gain benefits (1); Complaints show awareness (1); People are citizens, not subjects (1); It is a testimony to success (1).	1+1+1+1+1

20	Citizens choose rulers and control them (1); Decisions follow norms and procedures so citizens can find how they were taken (1); Regular free and fair elections, open public debate, right to information (1); Attentive to needs of people though record is mixed (1); Legitimate because it is the people's own government (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Dictatorships had slightly higher average growth (1); In poor countries the difference is negligible (1); Democracy has other advantages (1); Growth depends on many factors (1); Inequality exists in democracies too (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that democracy guarantees prosperity and no inequality; the chapter says it does not automatically deliver faster growth or remove inequality.
- Forgetting the three expected outcomes of a democratic government: accountable, responsive and legitimate.
- Mixing up political equality (one person, one vote) with economic equality; democracy gives the first but has not fully achieved the second.
- Saying democracy has made no progress for women and disadvantaged groups; it has increased dignity and freedom, though gaps remain.
- Quoting the growth figures the wrong way round: 1950-2000 dictatorial regimes 4.42, democratic regimes 3.95, but among poor countries 4.34 vs 4.28; do not conclude that dictatorship is better.
- Forgetting that a democratic government can be slower in taking decisions, but this is the cost of consultation and accountability.
