ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 21: Consumer Rights (Economics) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) (i) and (iii) only	A seller cannot charge above MRP
2	(c) It supports a claim for repair or replacement	Evidence of promise
3	(c) (i) and (iii) only	District level comes first
4	(b) use the right to seek redressal	Redressal
5	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Discontent led to the movement
6	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Both true; R explains why a new Act was passed
7	(c) the right to choose	Forced purchase
8	(a) ISI - industrial goods	Quality marks
9	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	The weak position of consumers against powerful sellers is why protection is required; R explains A.
10	(b) Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A.	Both are true, but the RTI Act has no bearing on why COPRA was important.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	They harm health (1); The poor have low incomes and cannot afford treatment (1).	1+1
12	Insist on a bill (1); Complain if it is refused (1).	1+1
13	A bill can be used as evidence against them (1); It may bring tax liability (1).	1+1
14	Delay (1); High cost (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Campaigns (1); School programmes (1); Media coverage (1).	1+1+1
16	Information warns about hazards (1); Safety depends on knowing how to use a product (1); Labels protect consumers (1).	1+1+1
17	The cost (1); The time involved (1); Fear of the seller (1).	1+1+1
	OR: They know their rights (1); They check labels (1); They complain when cheated (1).	1+1+1
18	Check quality marks (1); Ask for bills (1); Report cheating (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Consumer movement protects buyers (1); Trade unions protect workers (1); Different aims (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) Right to choose (1). (ii) The District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (1). (iii) It upheld the District Commission's order and fined the institute for a frivolous appeal (1). (iv) Every consumer, whatever the service, has the right to decide whether to continue to receive it; without it a consumer could be forced to go on paying for poor service (2).	1+1+1+2
20	RTI gives information about government work (1); The consumer movement asserts consumer rights (1); Together they put pressure on officials (1); They also put pressure on sellers (1); Both increase transparency (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Safety: by checking that goods are safe and marked (1); Information: by reading labels (1); Choice: by refusing forced purchases (1); Redressal: by approaching consumer courts (1); Representation: by joining consumer groups (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Listing the rights incorrectly: choice, information, redressal, representation, safety and consumer education are the six rights in COPRA.

- Mixing up the three-tier system: District (up to Rs 1 crore), State (Rs 1 crore to Rs 10 crore), National (above Rs 10 crore).
- Treating ISI, Agmark and Hallmark as interchangeable: ISI for industrial goods, Agmark for agricultural goods, Hallmark for gold jewellery.
- Writing that the Consumer Protection Act was passed in 1960 or 2005: COPRA was enacted in 1986 (amended in 2019), the RTI Act in October 2005.
- Thinking that consumers can complain only to the shopkeeper; they can also go to the Consumer Disputes Redressal Commissions and can file a class action or be represented by consumer organisations.
- Confusing the right to be informed (MRP, date of manufacture, ingredients) with the right to choose (not being forced to buy a product or service).

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
