ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) a symbol of acceptance of democracy by former opponents	Symbolic reading.
2	(a) public ceremony to private reflection to universal message	Structural analysis.
3	(d) inseparable	Cannot be divided.
4	(d) He aims at reconciliation, not revenge	Constructive approach.
5	(d) It addresses oppressed and oppressor alike	Inclusivity.
6	(a) estrangement	Estrangement.
7	(c) involves ethical responsibility to others	Freedom is relational.
8	(b) show closeness and respect	Clan name shows affection.
9	(a) a metaphor presenting him as a living symbol of hope	Figurative.
10	(a) a paradox with moral insight	A seeming contradiction that holds truth.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He calls it a victory for justice and human dignity (1), so it is about right and wrong, not merely about power (1).	1+1
12	It combines memories of Mandela's boyhood (1) with a public message to the nation and world on freedom (1).	1+1
13	It shows the army accepts civilian rule (1) which is vital for stable democracy (1).	1+1
14	It shows freedom is lost by those who deny it to others (1); therefore real freedom involves everyone's liberation (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He says to be free is to respect others' freedom (1). If some remain oppressed, the whole society stays unfree and unjust (1). Hence freedom is collective and interdependent (1).	1+1+1
16	A walk suggests slow patient endurance (1). A battle would suggest violence, which Mandela's reconciling tone avoids (1). Walk also implies steps taken by many together (1).	1+1+1
17	If people had united, apartheid would not have lasted long (1). This is the third conditional for an unreal past (1). Verb forms: had united / would not have lasted (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He thinks of the nation, not of himself (1). He chooses reconciliation over revenge (1). He keeps a vision of equality and justice (1).	1+1+1
18	Speeches can inspire unity and set direction (1). But change also needs action and institutions (1). Mandela's words mattered because his life backed them (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Mandela, who was brave, forgave his jailers (1). Or: Because Mandela was brave, he forgave his jailers (1). The sentence now has a main clause and a subordinate clause (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Mandela is humble in sharing credit (1). He is courageous and defines true bravery (1). He offers forgiveness instead of revenge (1). He sets a vision of a just society (1). Overall, his words and life together show leadership guided by moral values (1).	2+2+1
	OR: He feared pain, prison and death (1). Yet he continued to resist apartheid (1). In jail he stayed firm for 27 years (1). He faced his enemies with forgiveness (1). His life proves that courage is chosen action despite fear (1).	2+2+1
20	The ceremony establishes the importance of the moment (1). Personal reflections bring sincerity (1). Imagery like trees, chains and bars makes ideas concrete (1). Repetition and inclusive language engage the audience (1). The movement from past to future creates hope (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Greeting and stand (1). Mandela's example of forgiveness (1). Revenge leads to cycles of hatred (1). Forgiveness builds peace (1). Conclusion and appeal (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) stresses justice and dignity for all	Consistent with his message.
2	(b) Mandela's speech is the finest ever made	Value judgement.
3	(a) Mandela's forgiving attitude helped national healing	Inference requires interpretation.
4	(b) Ideals set the direction for the practical work of nation-building	Defence.
5	(c) He remembers past heroes and the wound of apartheid	Historical reference.
6	(b) a gradual awakening from personal to collective need	Development of consciousness.
7	(d) The nation had been divided by apartheid for decades.	Past perfect passive.
8	(c) Freedom as a Shared Duty	Fits theme.
9	(d) to stress collective effort	Inclusive language.
10	(d) were	Second conditional uses 'were'.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It includes all South Africans (1) and creates a sense of shared ownership of the victory (1).	1+1
12	It recalls apartheid's wounds (1) and then uses them as reasons to build a just society (1).	1+1
13	It promoted national healing and unity (1) although some may see it as too forgiving; yet it prevented renewed conflict (1).	1+1
14	Leaders guide and inspire (1) but depend on the courage of ordinary people (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It is a strength: after 27 years of jail he did not seek revenge (1). Forgiveness avoided violence and united the nation (1). It needed greater courage than anger would have needed (1).	1+1+1
16	The opening has a formal, proud tone (1). The reflection becomes intimate and thoughtful (1). The shift lets readers see both the public event and the personal meaning (1).	1+1+1
17	In spite of long imprisonment, Mandela spoke of forgiveness (1). Although he was imprisoned for long, he spoke of forgiveness (1). 'In spite of' is followed by a noun phrase, 'although' by a clause (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Oppressors fall prey to fear and hatred (1). The oppressed internalise loss of dignity (1). Both are damaged, so healing is necessary for all (1).	1+1+1
18	Repetition shows emotional intensity (1). It is a pledge against the return of oppression (1). It gives the speech a solemn, memorable rhythm (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Mandela's ideals stand the test of time: they remain valid (1). He paid tribute to fellow fighters by naming them (1). The idioms mean to last and to honour respectively (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	The oppressor gets a false sense of superiority (1). He is imprisoned by hatred (1). He loses empathy and humanity (1). The oppressed lose liberties and dignity (1). Mandela therefore calls for freeing both; this is a deeper vision of justice (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Two anthems for two communities (1). 'Common victory' stresses collective achievement (1). Trees as symbols of shared roots (1). The call for freedom for oppressors and oppressed (1). The dream of a rainbow nation (1).	2+2+1

20	Introduction defining freedom (1). Mandela's view: respect and enhance others' freedom (1). Examples from society and school (1). Responsibilities: tolerance, justice, courage (1). Conclusion with a call to action (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Mandela leads but thanks the people (1). He honours fellow fighters and their sacrifices (1). Common people bore hardship for decades (1). Military leaders accept the change (1). Hence change comes when leaders and people act together (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) is not finished with political freedom	Freedom needs maintenance.
2	(d) metaphor	Prejudice treated as bars.
3	(b) Mandela, the first Black president, spoke of hope.	Commas around the appositive.
4	(d) He wanted to take revenge	Revenge is contrary.
5	(a) greater division and weakened unity	Counterfactual.
6	(d) Having served in prison, Mandela forgave his jailers.	Subject matches the modifier.
7	(c) repetition, imagery and inclusive language	Rhetoric.
8	(b) They are interlinked, since individual dignity depends on social justice	Interdependence.
9	(a) were, inspire	Should be 'was' and 'inspired'.
10	(b) It emphasises the vast collective sacrifice	Collective sacrifice.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	If courage is overcoming fear, anyone who fears can be brave (1) so it becomes attainable and not reserved for heroes (1).	1+1
12	Trees grow roots into the soil of the land (1) and suggest every citizen is equally rooted in South Africa (1).	1+1
13	Its themes of freedom, courage and forgiveness apply everywhere (1) to all times and societies (1).	1+1
14	He mentions minerals but values human qualities more (1), so he sees courage and unity as true wealth (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Winning freedom required courage over decades (1). Courage means acting despite fear, so fear cannot decide a free people's fate (1). Thus courage and freedom feed each other (1).	1+1+1
16	Mandela names a few leaders (1). He speaks of countless people who sacrificed (1). The title and tone suggest the victory belongs to all of them (1).	1+1+1
17	It teaches equal respect for everyone (1). It encourages standing up against bullying with courage (1). It asks students to forgive and build friendship (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It sets the scene of a historic moment (1). The grandeur contrasts with earlier suffering (1). It lets Mandela move to reflection and message (1).	1+1+1
18	The day is the destination of the long walk (1). The reflections cover decades of struggle (1). Hence the title is apt as it links the day with the journey behind it (1).	1+1+1
	OR: As a young man he wanted only his own freedom (1) but he realised that his people were chained too and his own liberty meant little (1). He therefore joined the struggle and saw his duty to the whole nation, which makes the narrative both personal and political (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Format with date and salutation (1). Express gratitude for sacrifices (1). Share the lesson about courage and fear (1). Advise unity and respect for all (1). Close with hope and signature (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting and context (1). Mention freedom struggle in India and in South Africa (1). Mandela's idea: respect others' freedom (1). Link with constitutional values of equality (1). Closing with a pledge (1).	2+2+1

20	A divided society needs healing (1). Revenge would perpetuate hatred (1). Mandela's gestures, like honouring all communities, build trust (1). Reconciliation made peaceful change possible (1). It is a model for other post-conflict societies (1).	2+2+1
	OR: It blends the public event with private reflection (1). The first-person voice adds sincerity (1). Language is dignified yet simple (1). Imagery and rhythm give it speech-like power (1). Its themes of freedom and forgiveness give it lasting value (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND