ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) no one language has been given the status of national language	Hindi is only the official language
2	(b) rise of regional parties and coalition governments at the Centre	No single party got a clear majority
3	(b) Jharkhand	Jharkhand recognised differences of culture, ethnicity and geography
4	(d) more powerful than the States	Some units may also get special powers
5	(c) linguistic States	Boundaries were redrawn so that people speaking one language lived in one State
6	(a) One level of government can unilaterally change the fundamental provisions of the constitution	Changes need the consent of both levels
7	(d) 25	They contain about 40 per cent of the world's population
8	(b) the legislatures of at least half of the States	This protects federal power sharing
9	(a) at least two political parties coming together	Partners adopt a common programme
10	(d) Union Government	The Constitution provides this

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Panchayat Samiti (block or mandal) (1); Zilla Parishad (district level) (1).	1+1
12	An area too small to be a State that could not be merged with any State (1); Example: Chandigarh or Lakshadweep; the Centre has special powers there (1).	1+1
13	The highest court (Supreme Court) (1); High Courts also decide disputes about division of powers (1).	1+1
14	All voters of a village (1); It approves the budget and reviews the gram panchayat's performance (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Belgium shifted from unitary to federal in 1993 (1); Sri Lanka continues to be a unitary system (1); Tamil leaders want Sri Lanka to become federal (1).	1+1+1
16	Hindi is the official language, not the national language (1); 22 languages are Scheduled Languages and exams for the Centre can be taken in any of them (1); English continues along with Hindi for official purposes (1).	1+1+1
17	States are as large as countries of Europe and internally diverse (1); Local people know their problems and can use money better (1); They can directly participate in decision making (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The area over which someone has legal authority, by territory or subjects (1); Each tier has jurisdiction on legislation, taxation and administration (1); It is specified in the constitution (1).	1+1+1
18	Parliament cannot change it on its own (1); Two-thirds majority of both Houses is needed (1); At least half of the State legislatures must ratify it (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Two or more levels of government with their own jurisdictions (1); Jurisdictions are specified in the constitution so each tier is guaranteed (1); Courts interpret the constitution and settle disputes between levels (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Boundaries were changed to form linguistic States and some States on culture and geography (1); Linguistic States made the country more united (1); No national language; Hindi is the official language (1); 22 Scheduled Languages, States have their own official languages (1); English continued along with Hindi (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Union, State and local governments are the three tiers (1); Local governments existed before but were weak (1); 1992 amendment made regular elections compulsory (1); Reservation for SC, ST, OBC and one-third for women; State Election Commission (1); States must share power and revenue (1).	1+1+1+1+1

20	Union List: defence, foreign affairs, banking, communications, currency (1); State List: police, trade, commerce, agriculture, irrigation (1); Concurrent List: education, forest, trade unions, marriage, adoption, succession (1); Union law prevails in conflict on the Concurrent List (1); Residuary subjects go to the Union (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Constitution divides powers among tiers (1); Linguistic states and accommodation of languages avoided conflict (1); Regional parties and coalitions gave States a bigger voice (1); Judiciary protects the division of powers (1); Local government gives a third tier (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) 21	In total 22 languages are in the Eighth Schedule
2	(d) the State Election Commission	An independent institution created in each State
3	(c) one-third	SC, ST and OBC seats are also reserved
4	(b) the law made by the Union Government prevails	The Union Government has the final say
5	(d) Gram Sabha	It approves the annual budget
6	(b) the High Courts and the Supreme Court	The judiciary oversees the Constitution
7	(a) 1992	The Constitution was amended to strengthen the third tier
8	(b) Police	State and local importance
9	(b) India and Spain	A large country divides power among its units
10	(a) Education	Both Union and States can make laws on it

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	A system of government in which power is divided between a central authority and constituent units (1); Both levels enjoy their power independent of the other (1).	1+1
12	In a federation power is divided between the Centre and constituent units, each with its own jurisdiction (1); In a unitary system there is one level or sub-units are subordinate to the Centre (1).	1+1
13	22 languages (1); The Eighth Schedule of the Constitution (1).	1+1
14	Union List, State List (1); Concurrent List (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Some leaders feared it would break up the country (1); Experience showed it made the country more united (1); It made administration easier (1).	1+1+1
16	Union List: national importance such as defence, banking and currency; only the Union legislates (1); State List: police, trade, agriculture; only States legislate (1); Concurrent List: education, marriage, forests; both legislate, the Union law prevails in a conflict (1).	1+1+1
17	Towns have municipalities headed by a chairperson (1); Big cities have municipal corporations headed by a mayor (1); Both are controlled by elected representatives (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Assam, Nagaland, Arunachal Pradesh and Mizoram have special powers under Article 371 (1); Reasons are their peculiar social and historical circumstances (1); Protection of land rights, culture and preferential employment of indigenous people (1).	1+1+1
18	Before: elections were not held regularly; after: regular elections are mandatory (2); Before: no powers or resources of their own; after: States share powers and revenue and seats are reserved (1).	2+1
	OR: Hindi is the official language but mother tongue of only a portion of Indians (1); English use was to stop in 1965 but the Centre continued it with Hindi after protests (1); Promotion of Hindi does not mean imposing it on States (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Giving power from Central and State governments to local governments (1); Many problems are best settled locally (1); People know their problems and can use funds efficiently (1); They can participate directly, which builds democratic habits (1); It realises the principle of local self-government (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: They have the power to levy taxes (1); Sources of revenue are specified so that each has financial autonomy (1); This allows each to carry out its responsibilities (1); Local governments also need resources shared by States (1); Inadequate sharing weakens local bodies (1).	1+1+1+1+1

20	India is declared a Union of States (1); Constitution provides a two-tier system and later a third tier (1); Three lists divide legislative powers (1); Changes need two-thirds of Parliament and ratification by half of the States (1); Judiciary oversees the working; Union and States levy their own taxes (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Gram panchayat with ward members and a sarpanch is elected by the adult population (1); Gram sabha of all voters supervises it and approves the budget (1); Panchayat samiti members are elected by panchayat members (1); Zilla parishad includes samiti heads, MPs and MLAs and officials; chairperson is its political head (1); Similar urban bodies are municipalities and corporations (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) Banking	Matters of national importance are on this list
2	(c) United States of America	Independent States joined to pool sovereignty
3	(b) Union of States	The word 'federation' is not used
4	(d) have equal power and are strong compared with the federal government	USA is an example
5	(d) there is only one level of government or sub-units are subordinate to the Centre	This contrasts with a federation
6	(d) Mayor	The head of a municipality is the municipal chairperson
7	(b) Nagaland	Protection of land rights and culture of indigenous peoples
8	(c) safeguard the unity of the country and accommodate regional diversity	Both aims must be balanced
9	(c) Chandigarh	These areas are too small to be independent States
10	(b) federalism	A federation usually has two levels of government

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Taking power from Central and State governments (1); Giving it to local government (1).	1+1
12	A government formed by the coming together of at least two political parties (1); Partners adopt a common programme (1).	1+1
13	Subjects not in any of the three lists or that arose later, like computer software (1); The Union Government (1).	1+1
14	'Coming together' as in the USA (1); 'Holding together' as in India (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Regional parties rose in many States (1); Coalition governments at the Centre needed their support (1); A Supreme Court judgement made arbitrary dismissal of State governments difficult (1).	1+1+1
16	Each village or group of villages has a gram panchayat headed by a sarpanch (1); Panchayat samitis group several gram panchayats (1); All samitis of a district form the zilla parishad (1).	1+1+1
17	Gram sabhas are not held regularly (1); Most States have not transferred significant powers (1); Adequate resources are not given (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Each level has sources of revenue specified (1); Union and State governments levy taxes (1); This ensures financial autonomy (1).	1+1+1
18	The Constitution did not make any language the national language (1); Hindi is the official language but many safeguards protect other languages (1); This avoided the Sri Lankan type of situation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Coming together: independent States join to pool sovereignty, all have equal power and are strong (1); Holding together: a large country divides power among units, the Centre is more powerful (1); Units may have unequal powers, as in India (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	For a long time one party ruled the Centre and most States (1); The Centre misused the Constitution to dismiss State governments (1); After 1990 regional parties rose and coalition governments emerged (1); A Supreme Court judgement made arbitrary dismissal difficult (1); A new culture of power sharing and respect for State autonomy emerged (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: About 36 lakh elected representatives, the largest experiment in democracy (1); Constitutional status deepened democracy and raised women's representation (1); Gram sabhas are not held regularly (1); States have not transferred enough powers (1); Resources given are inadequate (1).	1+1+1+1+1

20	Two or more levels of government governing the same citizens (1); Each level has its own jurisdiction in legislation, taxation and administration (1); Jurisdictions are specified in the constitution (1); Fundamental provisions cannot be changed by one level alone (1); Courts interpret the constitution; revenue sources of each level are specified (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Belgium moved from unitary to federal in 1993 and India's Constitution is federal from the start (1); Both are 'holding together' federations (1); Belgium has community governments and India has three lists (1); In both, power is constitutionally guaranteed to regional units (1); Belgium gives equal ministers; India's Union is more powerful (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND