SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	The narrator is James Herriot, a young vet (1), who works as an assistant to Mr Siegfried Farnon (1).	1+1
17	Hari Singh was a fifteen-year-old thief (1) who narrates the story and is later reformed by Anil's trust (1).	1+1
18	Fowler is a young man who narrates the story (1) and who wants to become a writer of detective and spy stories (1).	1+1
19	Horace Danby was a respectable maker of locks and safes (1) who secretly burgled a house once a year to buy rare books (1).	1+1
20	Griffin was a scientist (1) who discovered a way to make his body invisible (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Tricki was fed cakes, cream and other rich foods several times a day and never had to walk much. His owner carried and pampered him constantly, so he grew fat and idle. He had little interest in play, and his poor health was a result of this over-indulgence.	1+1+1
22	Hari was in the crowd at a wrestling match when he noticed Anil, a young man who looked easy to deceive. He started a friendly conversation and told a story to win sympathy. Anil responded warmly and offered him a meal and a job.	1+1+1
23	Ausable was a plump, quiet man with a plain face. He did not look at all like the dashing spy of stories. Fowler was surprised and a little disappointed.	1+1+1
24	Horace is a middle-aged, respected lock-maker who lives a quiet life. His only passion is collecting rare books. To get money for one he plans a single robbery every year.	1+1+1
	OR: Griffin discovered a method to make a body invisible and tested it on himself. At first it seemed a great power. Soon it brought cold, hunger and loneliness, and made him a hunted man.	1+1+1
25	As a child Richard loved to collect things: butterflies, rocks, fossils and coins. He completed a collection of the local butterflies at an early age. His curiosity about nature began early.	1+1+1
	OR: Mathilde was pretty and charming but discontented. She felt she was born for luxury and was unhappy with her modest life. Her dreams of grandeur made her blind to her husband's kindness.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Mrs Pumphrey is a rich widow who lives in a big house with a chauffeur and servants. She has no family, so Tricki is the centre of her life, and she treats him like a child. (2) Her love is real, but it is foolish: she feeds him rich food and never lets him exercise, thereby damaging his health. Her letters from 'Tricki' to 'Uncle Herriot' show her whimsical imagination. (2) She is generous, sending lavish presents, and she is grateful when Tricki recovers, though she wrongly credits surgery. She is amusing but lovable. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: Hari is a fifteen-year-old thief, skilled in winning trust (1). He first sees Anil only as a victim (1). Anil's kindness stirs his conscience (1). He returns the money and decides to learn (1). He is a young person capable of change (1).	2+2+1
27	Ausable is a plump, calm secret agent (1). He does not look heroic (1). He is clever and quick-witted (1). He outwits Max with a false balcony (1). He shows courage under pressure (1).	2+2+1
	OR: A respectable maker of locks and safes (1). A passionate book collector (1). A once-a-year burglar (1). Kind and gullible (1). Ends as a prison librarian (1).	2+2+1
