ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapters 1–5: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History), Nationalism in India (History), The Making of a Global World (History), The Age of Industrialisation (History), Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) A free market would benefit the growing middle class	Middle-class liberals wanted markets without restrictions
2	(c) a calm, composed, divine and spiritual figure	Image
3	(c) imported food was cheaper than home-grown food	Cheaper food could be imported
4	(d) decline of many Indian handloom weavers	Machine-made cloth was cheaper
5	(c) women had become an important new reading public	Women were readers and writers
6	(a) Mazzini wanted a democratic republic through popular revolution, Cavour worked through monarchy and diplomacy	Contrasting methods
7	(a) bringing Hindu and Muslim support together	Unity
8	(c) Indian migrants adapted their traditions in a new land	Muharram was transformed into a carnival-like Hosay
9	(b) British planters	The chapter mentions Parsi, Marwari and Bengali businessmen
10	(c) would spread enlightenment and sweep away despotism	He called it the most powerful engine of progress
11	(d) It was the result of a long process, such as the Act of Union of 1707	Gradual domination by England
12	(a) Indian industrialists	FICCI, Purshottamdas
13	(d) keep trade and currencies stable	Stability in exchange rates encouraged trade
14	(c) iron ore, coal and water were available nearby	Raw materials were close by
15	(a) it encouraged free thinking and questioning of authority	Heretical ideas could spread

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	He abolished the feudal system and freed peasants from serfdom and manorial dues (1); Guild restrictions were removed, favouring trade and the middle classes (1)	1+1
17	Salt is consumed by all, and the heavy tax on it burdened the poor most (1); The government's monopoly over its production made it a symbol of colonial exploitation (1).	1+1
18	Colonies needed labour for plantations and mines (1); Poverty and lack of jobs at home pushed people to migrate (1).	1+1
19	They forced weavers to sell at low prices set by the Company (1); They punished weavers who dealt with other buyers (1).	1+1
20	Women wrote letters and articles in journals on women's issues (1); They read newspapers and joined debates on social reform (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Cavour was a diplomat and chief minister of Sardinia-Piedmont (1); He used an alliance with France and war against Austria in 1859 (1); Garibaldi was a military leader who led the Red Shirts and conquered the south in 1860; both complemented each other (1)	1+1+1

22	The Muslim League and many Muslim leaders felt alienated from the Congress after the Khilafat issue faded (1); The Congress was seen to be close to the Hindu Mahasabha and its use of Hindu religious symbols and images (1); Muslim leaders feared that the minority would be dominated and demanded reserved seats in legislatures, so many stayed away from the movement (1).	1+1+1
23	Newly independent countries had poor economies and little control over their resources (1); The rich countries benefited more from the international order (1); They formed the G-77 to demand a NIEO for control of resources, fair prices and market access (1).	1+1+1
24	During the First World War Manchester mills made army goods and imports into India fell (1); Indian mills got orders for army cloth, jute bags and others, and expanded (1); Industrial output and profits rose, and new factories were set up (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Novels described social life and problems, e.g., Dickens wrote about workers' lives (1); Women found new roles as writers and heroines (1); Serialised novels in magazines reached the middle class (1).	1+1+1
25	In Poland, Polish was used in church as resistance (1); Language preserved the national memory and culture (1); Publishing folk songs and literature in the national language created unity across classes (1)	1+1+1
	OR: The Gudem Hills tribals thought that Gandhi would end the forest laws that restricted their free movement (1); Swaraj meant freedom to move freely in forests and graze cattle (1); Under Alluri Sitaram Raju they used guerrilla warfare, which contradicted Gandhi's non-violence (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Conservatives wanted to preserve monarchy, church and social hierarchies after 1815 (1); Liberals demanded constitutions, representative government and freedom of the press (1); Nationalists wanted nation-states based on common identity, which threatened multi-national empires (1); Revolutions of 1830 and 1848 showed these forces in conflict (1); Conservative regimes used censorship and the army, but the ideas persisted (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Salt was a necessity for all, and the colonial government held a monopoly over it and taxed it heavily (1); Gandhi started the march from Sabarmati Ashram on 12 March 1930 with 78 volunteers, covering about 240 miles to Dandi (1); On 6 April 1930 he broke the salt law by making salt from seawater (1); This inspired the people across the country to break colonial laws, boycott foreign cloth and refuse to pay taxes (1); The government responded with arrests and repression, including the arrest of Gandhi, but the movement spread (1).	1+1+1+1+1
27	Trade and food exchange along the Silk Routes show early globalisation (1); The discovery of the Americas spread crops across continents (1); The nineteenth century saw flows of trade, labour and capital (1); Migration and cultural exchange created hybrid cultures (1); Globalisation thus has a long history, though its pace and nature changed (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: During the First World War Manchester mills produced war goods (1); Imports into India fell (1); Indian mills supplied cloth and jute bags for the army (1); New factories were set up and profits rose (1); Swadeshi had earlier raised the demand for Indian cloth (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapters 1–5: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History), Nationalism in India (History), The Making of a Global World (History), The Age of Industrialisation (History), Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) A movement valuing feeling, culture and folk traditions over pure reason	A cultural force for nationalism
2	(a) Picketing outside shops	Method
3	(b) carried meat over long distances without spoiling	Meat from Australia and America reached Europe
4	(a) machines were costly and demand was seasonal	Cheap labour made machines unattractive
5	(a) exposed the injustices of the caste system	It linked caste with slavery
6	(c) contractors who paid very low wages	Contractors supplied raw material
7	(c) Khadi cloth was costlier than mill cloth	Costs
8	(b) prices of agricultural goods fell steeply	Falling prices cut incomes
9	(b) eliminate middlemen and supervise weavers	They controlled supply of cloth and prevented dealing with other buyers
10	(a) spread of literacy and social reform movements	Readers wanted news and debate
11	(b) Removal of tariffs and fewer currencies created a larger market	Tariff barriers fell
12	(c) freedom to move freely in the forests	Forest laws
13	(b) of poverty and false promises of recruiting agents	Agents gave false information about work and living conditions
14	(d) supply British mills	Raw cotton exports rose from the early nineteenth century
15	(c) spread the nationalist message to ordinary people	Kesari and others criticised British rule

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	Middle classes tried to unify the German states into a nation-state governed by a parliament (1); It failed because the monarchy and military suppressed it, but showed the strength of nationalist feeling (1)	1+1
17	Khadi was hand-spun and hand-woven and was more expensive than machine-made mill cloth (1); Poor people could not afford to wear it for long, and so returned to mill cloth (1).	1+1
18	New crops from the Americas and silver from American mines increased the volume of trade (1); European colonies in the Americas created demand for goods and labour (1).	1+1
19	Machines were costly and demand for many goods was seasonal (1); Hand labour was cheaper and more flexible, so owners used machines selectively (1).	1+1
20	Reading became popular in all social classes (1); People discussed books and ideas in public, which created a culture of debate (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	The colonisers introduced mining and plantations and forced Africans to work for wages (1); Rinderpest in the 1890s destroyed their cattle and weakened resistance (1); Africans lost land and their traditional systems of livelihood (1).	1+1+1
22	Demand for many goods was seasonal, e.g., in London's printing and gas works (1); Hiring extra hand labour in the busy season was cheaper (1); Machines would lie idle in off seasons (1).	1+1+1
23	Prints and calendars showed gods, leaders and symbols (1); They reached even poor and illiterate people (1); They created common images of religion and nation (1).	1+1+1

24	It depended on the Prussian king, who rejected the crown (1); The aristocracy and the military opposed it (1); Middle-class liberals lacked support from workers and artisans (1)	1+1+1
	OR: Dr B.R. Ambedkar organised the Depressed Classes Association in 1930 (1); He demanded separate electorates for Dalits at the Second Round Table Conference so that they could elect their own representatives (1); Gandhi opposed this, which led to a clash that ended in the Poona Pact of 1932 (1).	1+1+1
25	Indentured workers took their food, languages, festivals and music to new places (1); Muharram became Hosay in Trinidad (1); Chutney music in the Caribbean mixes Indian and local forms (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Machines were costly to install and repair, so owners used them where profit was clear (1); Cheap labour in Britain made hand work attractive (1); Seasonal demand and varied goods favoured hand labour (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Print circulated religious texts in local languages (1); Reformers and orthodox groups debated in print (1); Muslim ulama issued fatwas to guide the community (1); Printed Hindu texts like the Ramcharitmanas reached homes (1); Print created both reform and religious revival (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The middle classes, businessmen and small producers gained freedom of trade and property (1); Peasants were freed from serfdom and manorial dues (1); Guild restrictions were abolished, helping merchants (1); Heavy taxes, censorship and forced conscription angered people (1); Many saw it as foreign domination and nationalists resisted (1)	1+1+1+1+1
27	The image of Bharat Mata by Abanindranath Tagore gave a form to the nation as a mother (1); Flags, particularly the Swaraj flag with the charkha designed by Gandhi, became the symbol of defiance (1); Folklore collected by Tagore in Bengal and by Natesa Sastri in Tamil Nadu revived pride in the cultural tradition (1); Songs such as Vande Mataram stirred patriotism (1); Reinterpreted history showed India's achievements and created a sense of collective belonging (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: After 1945, Asian and African colonies became independent (1); They were poor and the international order favoured the rich nations (1); They formed the G-77 to demand a NIEO (1); NIEO meant control over resources, fair prices and better market access (1); Later TNCs and trade liberalisation changed their role in the global economy (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapters 1–5: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History), Nationalism in India (History), The Making of a Global World (History), The Age of Industrialisation (History), Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) It was the only state ruled by an Italian princely house	It could lead a movement without foreign rulers
2	(c) Civil Disobedience	Tax refusal
3	(d) they still had to pay fixed land revenue	Colonial revenue demand did not fall
4	(d) there was an abundance of cheap labour and demand was seasonal	Owners avoided costly machines
5	(a) urban culture and demand for books grew among townspeople	Edo was a thriving print centre
6	(c) forcible incorporation of Ireland into the United Kingdom in 1801	The revolt led by Wolfe Tone failed
7	(d) 1928	Protests
8	(a) keep grain prices high by restricting imports	They protected landlord incomes
9	(a) shipping, mining and plantations	He invested in many fields before his enterprises collapsed
10	(a) the lives of the 'floating world' of urban Edo	Japanese print culture used pictures
11	(c) it linked national identity to the culture of common people	Folk culture and the spirit of the nation
12	(b) Lahore	Under Nehru
13	(b) wages were low	Lower costs raised profits
14	(c) cotton and jute	Textiles led factory growth
15	(b) decline in reading	Print increased reading

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	The revolt was by poor weavers with no organised support (1); The army crushed it and killed several weavers (1)	1+1
17	Champaran's peasants were forced by European planters to grow indigo on part of their land at unfair terms (1); A local issue of oppression gave Gandhi a chance to test satyagraha among peasants, and it was successful (1).	1+1
18	Railways, steamships and the telegraph made transport and communication faster and cheaper (1); Distant places became closely connected, e.g., food could reach faraway markets (1).	1+1
19	It appointed gomasthas to supervise weavers and prevent them from selling to other merchants (1); It gave advances and thereby bound the weavers to the Company (1).	1+1
20	It restricted the freedom of Indian language papers (1); It gave officials power to censor and seize presses, which angered nationalists (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Luther's printed Theses spread new religious ideas widely (1); The Bible was printed in local languages for ordinary readers (1); This led to the Protestant Reformation (1).	1+1+1
22	Voting rights were restricted to property-owning men (1); Men without property and all women were excluded (1); Liberals stood for equality before law, not equal political rights for all (1)	1+1+1
23	The Swaraj flag of 1921 was designed by Gandhi as a tricolour of red, green and white (1); It had a spinning wheel (charkha) in the centre representing the Gandhian ideal of self-help (1); Carrying the flag in marches was a symbol of defiance and of unity among protesters (1).	1+1+1

24	Silk Route trade carried luxury goods like silk and spices over land and sea, with religions and diseases also travelling (1); Nineteenth-century trade was far larger, with bulk goods like grain and cotton, carried by railways and steamships (1); In the nineteenth century trade was linked with colonial control and the flows of labour and capital (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Capital was limited and machinery had to be imported (1); Manchester imports were cheap and tariff protection was little (1); The colonial government favoured British manufactures (1).	1+1+1
25	Print spread the ideas of liberty and equality (1); Cartoons and writings mocked the monarchy (1); Print created a culture of debate that prepared the revolution (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Ottoman rule was weakening and Balkan peoples were rebelling (1); Different ethnic groups claimed freedom, referring to their earlier independence (1); Europe's Great Powers - Russia, Austria-Hungary, Germany, Britain - competed for influence (1)	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Merchants in proto-industrial networks built trade links and capital (1); Rural labour got skills in textile work (1); Merchants later invested in factories (1); Commercial networks and markets were already formed (1); This helped Europe's shift to factory production (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Women became readers and writers, with novels and magazines for them (1); Children's books and primary schools expanded (1); Workers used libraries for self-education (1); Penny magazines were popular (1); Literacy rose in the nineteenth century (1).	1+1+1+1+1
27	Italy was split into seven states under different rulers; Germany was a confederation of 39 states (1); Sardinia-Piedmont led Italy and Prussia led Germany (1); Italian unification used Cavour's diplomacy and Garibaldi's popular campaign (1); German unification used Bismarck's wars and military power (1); Both ended with monarchs as heads - Victor Emmanuel II in 1861 and William I in 1871 (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The Simon Commission came to India in 1928 without any Indian member, and the Congress boycotted it (1); The Congress decided to boycott the commission, and the slogan 'Go back Simon' was raised, with leaders such as Lala Lajpat Rai also protesting in Lahore (1); In December 1929, the Lahore Congress under Nehru adopted the objective of Purna Swaraj instead of dominion status (1); 26 January 1930 was observed as Independence Day all over India (1); This led to the Civil Disobedience Movement, which widened the nationalist demands (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER