ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapters 13–17: Power-sharing (Political Science), Federalism (Political Science), Gender, Religion and Caste (Political Science), Political Parties (Political Science), Outcomes of Democracy (Political Science) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) horizontal distribution of power	The organs stand at the same level
2	(c) no one language has been given the status of national language	Hindi is only the official language
3	(b) untouchability	The state can intervene for equality
4	(c) integral humanism	Inspired by Deendayal Upadhyaya
5	(d) legitimate	It is the people's own government
6	(a) Respecting the feelings and interests of different communities and regions	Belgian leaders realised unity needs mutual respect
7	(c) rise of regional parties and coalition governments at the Centre	No single party got a clear majority
8	(d) political mobilisation on religious lines	A frequent form of communalism
9	(d) political party	They agree on policies for the collective good
10	(d) keeps growing, with a few ultra-rich holding a disproportionate share	Those at the bottom find it hard to meet basic needs
11	(b) French	About 80 per cent speak French and 20 per cent Dutch
12	(d) Jharkhand	Jharkhand recognised differences of culture, ethnicity and geography
13	(d) There is no official religion	All individuals have freedom to profess, practise and propagate any religion
14	(c) 1885	It is one of the oldest parties in the world
15	(d) accountable and responsive to citizens	People have the right to choose their rulers and control them

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	Through constitutional and legal arrangements that give representation to weaker sections and religious or linguistic groups (1); Example: Belgium's community government or reserved constituencies in India (1).	1+1
17	Panchayat Samiti (block or mandal) (1); Zilla Parishad (district level) (1).	1+1
18	Scheduled Castes (Dalits) were regarded as 'outcaste' and subjected to untouchability (1); Scheduled Tribes (Adivasis) led a secluded life in hills and forests (1).	1+1
19	Leaders and active members (1); Followers (1).	1+1
20	It is based on deliberation and negotiation (1); It follows norms and procedures, but decisions are more acceptable (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Thousands of people of both communities were killed (1); Many families fled as refugees and many lost their livelihoods (1); It caused a terrible setback to the social, cultural and economic life of the country (1).	1+1+1
22	Belgium shifted from unitary to federal in 1993 (1); Sri Lanka continues to be a unitary system (1); Tamil leaders want Sri Lanka to become federal (1).	1+1+1
23	People of one religion do not have the same interests in every context (1); Everyone has several roles and identities (1); There are many voices inside every community (1).	1+1+1
24	Parties are among the least trusted institutions (1); Yet membership of parties in India is higher than in Canada, Japan, Spain and South Korea (1); Membership and closeness to parties has gone up in India (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It is people's own government (1); People wish to be ruled by their elected representatives (1); There is overwhelming support for the idea of democracy (1).	1+1+1

25	Power sharing is the very spirit of democracy (1); Those affected by the exercise of power have a right to be consulted on how they are governed (1); A legitimate government is one in which citizens, through participation, acquire a stake in the system (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Hindi is the official language, not the national language (1); 22 languages are Scheduled Languages and exams for the Centre can be taken in any of them (1); English continues along with Hindi for official purposes (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Belgium: 59 per cent Dutch, 40 per cent French, 1 per cent German-speaking (2); Sri Lanka: 74 per cent Sinhala speakers, 18 per cent Tamil speakers, about 7 per cent Christians (1); Brussels had a Dutch-speaking minority in the capital; Sri Lanka's Sinhala majority could impose its will (1); Without accommodation, Belgium could have faced a messy partition and Sri Lanka a civil war (1).	2+1+1+1
	OR: Boundaries were changed to form linguistic States and some States on culture and geography (1); Linguistic States made the country more united (1); No national language; Hindi is the official language (1); 22 Scheduled Languages, States have their own official languages (1); English continued along with Hindi (1).	1+1+1+1+1
27	No constituency has a clear majority of one caste (1); No party wins all votes of a caste (1); Several parties may field candidates of the same caste (1); Ruling parties often lose (1); Voters also consider party, performance and economic condition (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: One-party: China (1); Two-party: USA and UK (1); Multiparty: India with alliances like NDA and UPA (1); Multiparty gives representation to many interests but may cause instability (1); No system is ideal for all countries (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERY

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapters 13–17: Power-sharing (Political Science), Federalism (Political Science), Gender, Religion and Caste (Political Science), Political Parties (Political Science), Outcomes of Democracy (Political Science) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) north and east of the country	The map in the chapter shows this
2	(b) more powerful than the States	Some units may also get special powers
3	(b) Pakistan	India's Constitution gives no special status to any religion
4	(c) lack of internal democracy	Power tends to concentrate in one or a few leaders
5	(b) population size and global situation	Also economic priorities and cooperation of other countries
6	(b) 1948	Independence from Britain came in 1948
7	(c) linguistic States	Boundaries were redrawn so that people speaking one language lived in one State
8	(a) feminist	The term is defined in the chapter
9	(c) putting forward policies and programmes	Voters choose among them
10	(a) promotes equality, dignity and allows room to correct mistakes	The chapter lists these as reasons
11	(c) 74 per cent	Tamil speakers are about 18 per cent
12	(c) One level of government can unilaterally change the fundamental provisions of the constitution	Changes need the consent of both levels
13	(a) 54 per cent for women and 76 per cent for men	A smaller proportion of girls go for higher studies
14	(a) Parties provide access to government machinery and welfare schemes	Hence people feel close to parties
15	(a) not impressive	Poverty remains a concern

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	A belief that the majority community should be able to rule in any way it wants (1); It disregards the wishes and needs of the minority (1).	1+1
17	An area too small to be a State that could not be merged with any State (1); Example: Chandigarh or Lakshadweep; the Centre has special powers there (1).	1+1
18	The number of girl children per thousand boys (1); About 919 as mentioned in the chapter (1).	1+1
19	A group of people who come together to contest elections and hold power in government (1); They agree on policies and programmes for the collective good (1).	1+1
20	A government that is the people's own government (1); It is accepted by the people because they elect it (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Issues related to women's well-being do not get adequate attention (1); Unless women control power their problems will not get attention (1); Reservation of seats is one way to ensure fair representation (1).	1+1+1
22	Parties do not keep membership registers or hold regular elections (1); Ordinary members get little information (1); Leaders assume more power and personal loyalty matters more than principles (1).	1+1+1
23	It develops a procedure to conduct competition (1); Non-democratic regimes suppress differences (1); It helps people learn to respect differences (1).	1+1+1
24	Constitutional and legal arrangements give weaker sections and minority groups a place in legislatures and administration (1); Example: Belgium's community government (1); Example: reserved constituencies for SC and ST in Parliament and Assemblies (1).	1+1+1

	OR: States are as large as countries of Europe and internally diverse (1); Local people know their problems and can use money better (1); They can directly participate in decision making (1).	1+1+1
25	Average economic status follows the old hierarchy: upper castes best off, Dalits and Adivasis worst (1); Proportion below poverty line is higher among lowest castes (1); Upper castes are over-represented among the rich (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Founded in 1980 by reviving the Bharatiya Jana Sangh (1); Integral humanism and cultural nationalism are important elements (1); Came to power in 1998 as leader of the NDA; 303 seats in 2019 (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Every individual wants respect (1); Democracies recognise dignity and freedom at least in principle (1); Women's struggles gained moral and legal force (1); Disadvantaged castes can claim equal status (1); Non-democracies lack this legal and moral basis (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Prudential reasons: it reduces conflict and brings political stability (2); Example: Belgium avoided division, Sri Lanka suffered civil war (1); Moral reason: sharing power is the spirit of democracy (1); People affected by decisions have a right to be consulted and a legitimate government gives citizens a stake (1).	2+1+1+1
27	Union, State and local governments are the three tiers (1); Local governments existed before but were weak (1); 1992 amendment made regular elections compulsory (1); Reservation for SC, ST, OBC and one-third for women; State Election Commission (1); States must share power and revenue (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: It has given Dalits and OBCs better access to decision making (1); Organisations agitate for dignity and access to land and opportunities (1); Exclusive attention to caste can divert attention from poverty and corruption (1); It can cause tensions and violence (1); Caste politics alone is not healthy for democracy (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapters 13–17: Power-sharing (Political Science), Federalism (Political Science), Gender, Religion and Caste (Political Science), Political Parties (Political Science), Outcomes of Democracy (Political Science) | Class 10 Social_Science | Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 15 × 1 = 15

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) prudential	Power sharing reduces conflict and gives stability
2	(a) 25	They contain about 40 per cent of the world's population
3	(a) sex-selective abortion	Parents prefer sons
4	(c) one-party system	China is an example
5	(a) Regular, free and fair elections	Also open public debate and the right to information
6	(c) moral reason	It values the act of sharing power itself
7	(b) the legislatures of at least half of the States	This protects federal power sharing
8	(b) special to India	This is the chapter's claim
9	(c) the government gives parties money to meet election expenses	Support may be in cash or in kind
10	(b) recognise that democracy is a form of government that only creates conditions	Citizens have to use the conditions
11	(c) 2009	It caused a terrible setback to social and economic life
12	(c) at least two political parties coming together	Partners adopt a common programme
13	(b) No parliamentary constituency has a clear majority of one caste	Hence candidates need support of more than one caste
14	(c) four	It must also win at least four seats in the Lok Sabha
15	(a) the difference was negligible	The gap was only 0.06

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
16	Competition among parties ensures that power does not remain in one hand (1); Parties may form alliances and run a coalition government together (1).	1+1
17	The highest court (Supreme Court) (1); High Courts also decide disputes about division of powers (1).	1+1
18	No constituency has a clear majority of one caste (1); No party wins all the votes of a caste; ruling parties often lose (any one) (1).	1+1
19	Without parties every candidate would be independent and no one would be responsible for how the country runs (1); They gather views and form responsible governments (1).	1+1
20	Democracies 3.95 per cent and dictatorships 4.42 per cent (1); In poor countries the difference is negligible (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 3 = 15

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
21	Passion for respect and freedom is the basis of democracy (1); Recognition of equal worth of all, including women (1); Caste-based discrimination lacks moral and legal foundations (1).	1+1+1
22	Power is shared among the legislature, executive and judiciary (1); Each organ can check the others, so none can exercise unlimited power (1); For example judges can check the executive and laws made by the legislature (1).	1+1+1
23	The area over which someone has legal authority, by territory or subjects (1); Each tier has jurisdiction on legislation, taxation and administration (1); It is specified in the constitution (1).	1+1+1
24	No official religion for the Indian state (1); Freedom to profess, practise and propagate any religion or none (1); Discrimination on grounds of religion is prohibited; state can intervene to ensure equality, as in banning untouchability (1).	1+1+1
	OR: They raise and highlight issues (1); They have lakhs of members and activists across the country (1); They launch movements to solve problems and opinions often crystallise on their lines (1).	1+1+1

25	It must be attentive to the needs and demands of the people (1); Citizens can participate in decision making (1); Governments that are not responsive can be replaced (1).	1+1+1
	OR: They struggled for Tamil as an official language, regional autonomy and equal opportunity (1); Their demand for more autonomy to Tamil provinces was repeatedly denied, and by the 1980s some groups wanted an independent Tamil Eelam (1); Distrust turned into widespread conflict and civil war (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
26	Contest elections (1); Put forward policies and programmes (1); Make laws and form and run governments (1); Play the role of opposition and shape public opinion (1); Provide access to government machinery and welfare schemes (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Democracy's examination never gets over (1); People ask for more as they gain benefits (1); Complaints show awareness (1); People are citizens, not subjects (1); It is a testimony to success (1).	1+1+1+1+1
27	Belgium recognised regional differences while Sri Lanka's leaders sought Sinhala dominance (1); Belgium gave constitutional guarantees to each community (1); In Sri Lanka demands for autonomy were repeatedly denied (1); Tamils turned to struggle, and distrust became civil war (1); Hence power sharing, not domination, keeps a country united (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Union List: defence, foreign affairs, banking, communications, currency (1); State List: police, trade, commerce, agriculture, irrigation (1); Concurrent List: education, forest, trade unions, marriage, adoption, succession (1); Union law prevails in conflict on the Concurrent List (1); Residuary subjects go to the Union (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERKEY