Mistakes to avoid:

- Defining barter as buying with coins; barter is exchange of goods or services without money.
- Listing advantages instead of problems: the problems of barter are double coincidence of wants, divisibility, portability, durability and no common measure of value.
- Writing that the SBI issues currency notes; notes are issued by the Reserve Bank of India.
- Saying paper money began in India; it was first used in China and came to India in the late 18th century.
- Calling punch-marked coins by the wrong name; they were karshapanas or panas.
- Forgetting that barter still exists today, for example at the Junbeel Mela in Assam.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
