11	Purna Swaraj means complete independence from British rule (1); The Congress under Jawaharlal Nehru adopted this demand at its Lahore session in December 1929 (1).	1+1
12	The Rowlatt Act of 1919 allowed detention of political prisoners without trial for two years (1); It was hurried through the Imperial Legislative Council despite the united opposition of Indian members (1).	1+1
13	The Swarajists were members of the Swaraj Party formed within the Congress by C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru (1); They wanted to return to council politics and oppose British policies from inside the legislatures (1).	1+1
14	On 13 April 1919, a large peaceful crowd gathered at Jallianwala Bagh, Amritsar (1); General Dyer closed the exits and ordered firing, killing hundreds of people (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	In Champaran (Bihar) he inspired peasants to struggle against the oppressive indigo plantation system (1); In Kheda (Gujarat) he supported peasants who could not pay revenue after a crop failure, and in Ahmedabad he supported cotton mill workers (1); These local satyagrahas taught him to organise mass action based on truth and non-violence, and made him a leader of the masses (1).	1+1+1
16	Industrialists such as G.D. Birla and Purshottamdas Thakurdas wanted protection against imports of foreign goods and a favourable rupee-sterling exchange ratio (1); They formed the Indian Industrial and Commercial Congress in 1920 and the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI) in 1927 (1); They gave financial help to the movement and refused to buy or sell imported goods (1).	1+1+1
17	On 13 April 1919, the Baisakhi day, a crowd of villagers and pilgrims gathered at the enclosed Jallianwala Bagh in Amritsar (1); Many had come to attend a fair and some to protest against the government's repressive measures (1); General Dyer blocked the exit and ordered firing without warning, killing hundreds and injuring many more (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Imports of foreign cloth fell sharply between 1921 and 1922, and foreign cloth was burnt in bonfires (1); The use of khadi increased and the demand for Indian mill and handloom cloth rose (1); Indian textile mills and handloom weavers gained from the boycott (1).	1+1+1
18	The Civil Disobedience Movement began with the Salt March in March 1930, when Gandhi broke the salt law at Dandi (1); People refused to cooperate and broke colonial laws, boycotted foreign cloth, picketed liquor shops and refused to pay taxes (1); Village officials resigned, and forest people violated forest laws; the government arrested leaders and used repression (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The Khilafat issue was the protest against the harsh peace treaty imposed on the Ottoman Emperor, the spiritual head (Khalifa) of the Islamic world, after the First World War (1); The Khilafat Committee was formed in Bombay in March 1919, led by Muhammad Ali and Shaukat Ali (1); Gandhi saw it as a chance to bring Hindus and Muslims together in a united national movement, so the Congress supported it with the Non-Cooperation programme (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	In 1919 Gandhi launched a nationwide satyagraha against the Rowlatt Act, with a hartal on 6 April 1919 (1); Rallies and strikes were organised in cities, and shops and schools closed down (1); The British administration responded with repression in Punjab, and local leaders were arrested; Gandhi was barred from Delhi (1); On 13 April 1919 General Dyer fired at the crowd gathered at Jallianwala Bagh in Amritsar (1); Martial law was imposed, and the brutal actions made Indians angrier, strengthening the nationalist movement (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The Simon Commission, an all-British commission set up to look into the working of the constitutional system, arrived in India in 1928 and was greeted with the slogan 'Go back Simon' (1); Viceroy Irwin announced a vague offer of dominion status in October 1929, which did not satisfy the radicals (1); At the Lahore session in December 1929 under Jawaharlal Nehru, the Congress declared Purna Swaraj and 26 January 1930 was observed as Independence Day (1); Gandhi launched the Civil Disobedience Movement with the Salt March in March 1930 (1); People boycotted foreign cloth, picketed liquor shops, refused to pay taxes and broke forest and salt laws, and large sections of society participated (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	The Dalits or Depressed Classes were not enthusiastic as the Congress ignored them for long, fearing it would offend the sanatanis (orthodox high-caste Hindus) (1); Ambedkar set up the Depressed Classes Association in 1930 and demanded separate electorates, which Gandhi opposed (1); The Poona Pact of 1932 gave them reserved seats, but many Dalit leaders remained suspicious (1); Many Muslims felt alienated from the Congress, which was seen as close to the Hindu Mahasabha, and a sense of Hindu-Muslim unity weakened after the Khilafat issue ended (1); Poor peasants and industrial workers also felt that their demands were not given priority, so the movement did not become fully inclusive (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: In towns the movement started with the middle class: thousands of students left government schools and colleges, and lawyers such as Motilal Nehru and C.R. Das gave up their practice (1); Except Madras, the councils were boycotted and foreign goods were boycotted with foreign cloth burnt in bonfires (1); Imports of foreign cloth halved between 1921 and 1922 and Indian mill and handloom cloth sales rose (1); The movement slowed down because khadi cloth was more expensive than mill cloth and the poor could not afford it (1); Boycotting British institutions required alternative Indian institutions, which were slow to come up; so teachers and students returned to government schools and lawyers to the courts (1).	1+1+1+1+1

11	Picketing means stationing volunteers outside shops, liquor shops or offices to stop people from buying or entering (1); It was used to enforce the boycott of foreign cloth and liquor (1).	1+1
12	It was a protest against the harsh treatment of the Ottoman Caliph (Khalifa) after the First World War (1); It was led by the Ali brothers, Muhammad Ali and Shaukat Ali, and Gandhi supported it to build Hindu-Muslim unity (1).	1+1
13	The Poona Pact of 1932 was an agreement between Gandhi and Dr B.R. Ambedkar (1); It gave the Depressed Classes reserved seats in the provincial and central legislative councils, but they were to be voted for by the general electorate (1).	1+1
14	The Rowlatt Act which curbed civil liberties (1); The Jallianwala Bagh massacre, or the Khilafat issue (any one) (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It allowed the government to imprison political prisoners without trial for two years (1); It took away basic civil liberties and was seen as unjust (1); It was passed in a hurry in the Imperial Legislative Council although all Indian members opposed it (1).	1+1+1
16	The government's titles were to be surrendered and civil services, army and police boycotted (1); Government-run courts, schools and legislative councils were to be boycotted (1); Foreign goods, especially foreign cloth, were to be boycotted, and if repression continued, a full civil disobedience campaign would be launched (1).	1+1+1
17	Thousands of women took part in protest marches, manufactured salt and picketed foreign cloth and liquor shops (1); Many went to jail, mostly from high-caste families in urban areas and from rich peasant households in rural areas (1); However, the Congress was reluctant to give women any position of authority in the organisation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Abanindranath Tagore painted the image of Bharat Mata as a calm, composed, divine and spiritual figure (1); The identity of India was visualised with the image of a mother, which inspired devotion and love for the nation (1); In later years the image took many forms, which helped people to develop a sense of belonging to the nation (1).	1+1+1
18	Dr Ambedkar organised the Depressed Classes Association in 1930 and demanded separate electorates for Dalits (1); Gandhi opposed this, fearing that it would slow down the integration of society, and he began a fast unto death (1); The Poona Pact of 1932 gave Dalits reserved seats in the central and provincial legislative councils to be voted by the general electorate (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The movement in the Gudem Hills of Andhra Pradesh was led by Alluri Sitaram Raju in the early 1920s (1); Hill people were angry at the colonial forest laws which stopped them from grazing cattle and collecting wood and fruits and forced them to do begar (1); Raju led a guerrilla war, attacking police stations and trying to achieve swaraj through force, but he was captured and executed in 1924 (1).	1+1+1

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	The Simon Commission was set up in 1927 by the Tory government in Britain to look into the working of the constitutional system in India (1); All its members were British, there was no Indian member (1); When it arrived in 1928, it was greeted with the slogan 'Go back Simon' and hartals by all parties including Congress and the Muslim League (1); Viceroy Irwin made a vague offer of dominion status that did not satisfy the radicals (1); At Lahore in December 1929, the Congress declared Purna Swaraj, leading to the Civil Disobedience Movement (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Gandhi and 78 volunteers began the march from Sabarmati Ashram on 12 March 1930 (1); They covered about 240 miles in 24 days to reach the coastal village of Dandi (1); On 6 April 1930, Gandhi ceremonially broke the salt law by manufacturing salt from sea water (1); This symbolic act of defiance started the Civil Disobedience Movement all over India (1); Salt was chosen as a symbol because everybody used it and the tax hit the poor most, so it could unite all sections against the British (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	In Awadh, Baba Ramchandra led the peasants against talukdars and landlords who demanded high rents and forced labour; the Oudh Kisan Sabha was set up in 1920 (1); Peasants understood swaraj as an end to the landlords' exploitation, and sometimes attacked landlords' houses and looted bazaars (1); In the Gudem Hills of Andhra, tribal peasants led by Alluri Sitaram Raju fought forest laws that restricted their movement (1); For them swaraj meant freedom to move freely in forests, while plantation workers in Assam thought it meant the right to return to their villages (1); Congress did not approve of such militant or independent action, so the movements broke away from Congress control (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Satyagraha emphasised the power of truth and the need to search for truth, and was based on non-violence (1); Gandhi believed that if the cause was true, physical force was not necessary and the oppressor could be persuaded to see the truth (1); He applied it in Champaran in 1916-17 for the indigo peasants, in Kheda in 1917 for peasants hit by crop failure, and in Ahmedabad in 1918 for cotton mill workers (1); It was non-violent, so people of all classes and communities could join (1); This attracted masses to the Congress and made it a truly mass movement (1).	1+1+1+1+1
