	OR: 8 November 2026, 4:30 p.m. Dear Mummy, Mausi came to meet you at four o'clock. She waited for half an hour and has gone home. She will call you tonight. I gave her tea and biscuits. Pooja (Format 1 · Content 1 · Language 1)	3
2	3, Tilak Nagar, Jaipur 8 November 2026 Dear Kunal, How are you? Our school celebrated Republic Day with great joy. The Principal hoisted the national flag and we sang the national anthem. Many students gave patriotic songs and speeches. I took part in a march-past. We were given laddoos at the end. I felt very proud of our country. Do tell me how you celebrated the day. Your loving friend, Sameer (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5
	OR: To: anita@example.com Subject: Birthday Party Dear Anita, I am going to turn twelve on 20 November. We are having a small party at my house at 5 p.m. There will be games, music and cake. Many of our school friends will come. Please do come and bring your sister along. My mother has made your favourite pasta. I will be waiting for you. Yours lovingly, Nidhi (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5
3	Importance of Games Games are as important as studies. They keep us fit and healthy. Playing outdoors in fresh air makes us strong and cheerful. Games teach us teamwork, discipline and how to accept defeat. A child who plays regularly sleeps well and studies better. Cricket, football and hockey are popular games. Hence, we should give some time to play every day. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: Monday, 9 November 2026 9:00 p.m. Dear Diary, Today was my first day in the school football team. Our coach, Mr Singh, made us run three rounds and then taught us how to pass the ball. I was nervous but my teammates were friendly. I scored one goal in the practice match. My legs are aching, but I feel proud. I will practise every day. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
