| 3 | My favourite festival is Diwali. It is celebrated in October or November. A week before it, we clean the house and decorate it with lamps and rangoli. On the day we wear new clothes, worship Goddess Lakshmi and light diyas. We exchange sweets with neighbours and burst a few crackers carefully. The festival teaches us that good always wins over evil. It also brings the family together. I wait for it all year. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1) | 4 |
| | OR: The Clever CrowOn a hot day a thirsty crow flew everywhere looking for water. At last he saw a pot, but it had only a little water at the bottom. His beak could not reach it. He thought for a while and then dropped pebbles into the pot one by one. The water slowly rose to the top. The crow drank happily and flew away.Moral: Where there is a will, there is a way.(Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1) | 4 |
