1	Tuesday, 14 July 2026 9:30 p.m. Dear Diary, It rained heavily all day. The roads were flooded and school closed early. I sailed paper boats in the courtyard with my cousin. Mother made hot pakoras and we sat by the window watching the rain. The evening was cool and beautiful. I love the monsoon. Kavya (Format 1 · Content 1 · Language 1)	3
	OR: Saturday, 15 August 2026 10:00 p.m. Dear Diary, We celebrated Independence Day with great joy. At 8 a.m. our Principal hoisted the national flag and we sang the national anthem. I recited a patriotic poem. Then we were given sweets. In the evening I watched a parade on television. I felt proud to be an Indian. Rahul (Format 1 · Content 1 · Language 1)	3

3	ROAD SAFETY By Tanmay Joshi Every year many people die in road accidents, most of which can be avoided. We should follow traffic rules: cross at zebra crossings, wear helmets and seat belts and never use phones while driving. Children should not cycle on busy roads. Schools should teach road safety and traffic police should punish rule breakers. Remember, a few seconds saved may cost a life. Let us promise to follow the rules and spread awareness. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: HEALTH IS WEALTH By Ritika Sen A healthy person is truly rich. Money cannot buy good health. To stay fit we should eat nutritious food, exercise regularly, sleep eight hours and keep our surroundings clean. We should avoid junk food and drink plenty of water. Yoga and games keep both body and mind strong. Students who are healthy concentrate better and attend school regularly. Let us value our health as our greatest treasure. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
