4	10, Jhotwara Jaipur 12 November 2026 The Editor The Times Daily Jaipur Subject: Noise pollution at night Sir/Madam, Loud music played late at night during functions disturbs the sleep of children, the old and the sick. Students find it hard to study. I request the authorities to enforce time limits strictly and fine offenders. Organisers should use low volume and stop by ten p.m. I hope this letter will be published. Yours faithfully, Kavita/Kunal (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5
	OR: Hostel Room 15 Jaipur 12 November 2026 Dear Rohan, I was sad to learn that you have been ill often. You should eat home-cooked food, avoid street snacks and sleep on time. Play outdoors for an hour every day and drink plenty of water. Do not skip breakfast. A healthy body helps a sharp mind. Please follow my advice and write to me soon. Your loving brother/sister, Naman/Nisha (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5
5	Time is the most valuable thing we have. Once lost, it never returns. A student who makes a timetable and follows it succeeds easily. Wasting time on idle talk or games spoils our future. We should do each work at the right time and never delay it for tomorrow. Time well used brings success. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: Digital India aims to bring technology to every citizen. Services like online payments, e-governance and digital classes have made life easier. Even villages now use the internet to sell products and learn skills. However, people must be careful about frauds and protect their data. With awareness, Digital India can make the country stronger. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
