4	12, Lal Kothi Jaipur 2 November 2026 The Editor The Daily Chronicle Jaipur Subject: Menace of plastic bags Sir/Madam, Through your newspaper I wish to draw attention to the growing use of plastic bags in our city. They choke drains, harm stray animals and spoil our parks. Though the use of thin bags is banned, shops still give them freely. I suggest that the municipal authorities should fine shopkeepers who break the law, provide cloth bags at low cost and run awareness campaigns in schools. Citizens too must carry their own bags. I hope this letter will be published. Yours truly, Ravi/Ravina (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5

In the garden we played cricket, had a delicious lunch and later enjoyed antakshari. Our teachers joined in the fun. We returned at five in the evening, tired but happy. I wish you had been with us. Do write to me about your plans for the winter break. Yours affectionately, Anil/Anita (Format 1 · Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	5
5	Sleep is as important to students as food. During sleep the body repairs itself and the brain stores what it has learned. A student who sleeps for eight hours feels fresh, remembers lessons well and stays cheerful. Lack of sleep causes tiredness, poor concentration and bad temper. To sleep well one must keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens late at night and have a light dinner. Thus, good sleep is the key to good health and good marks. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: My favourite teacher is Mrs Sharma, who teaches us English. She is kind, patient and always smiling. She explains difficult lessons with simple examples and encourages every student to speak. She tells stories and teaches us values like honesty and hard work. When someone makes a mistake she corrects gently. Because of her I have started loving reading. I hope to become as helpful to others as she is. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
