5	Road accidents take many lives every year. Most can be prevented by following simple rules. Drivers should obey signals, avoid speeding and wear seat belts or helmets. Pedestrians should cross at zebra crossings. Children should not play on roads. Schools should teach road safety. If everyone follows rules, roads will be safe. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: It was a rainy day. Dark clouds covered the sky and cool winds blew. Soon heavy rain began. Children sailed paper boats in puddles and farmers rejoiced. The roads were wet, and traffic moved slowly. In the evening we drank hot tea and ate pakoras. The rain made everything fresh. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
