SECTION — B — Answers — 4 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
7	(i) His brothers and sister had flown but he was afraid to fly.	1
	(ii) He felt that the sea was miles down and his wings would never support him.	1
	(iii) To the little hole under the ledge where he slept.	1
	(iv) He was timid and lacked courage.	1

SECTION — C — Answers — 4 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
8	He feared the great height and thought his wings would not support him; his brothers and sister had flown earlier, so he was more timid than them.	2
9	Hunger — the sight of his mother holding food just out of reach made him dive at it.	2

SECTION — D — Answers — 6 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
10	Afraid of heights, he stayed on the ledge; hungry, he saw his mother with food; she hovered close and he dived; fell in terror but his wings spread and he soared; flew with family; landed on the sea and floated; family praised him with scraps of dog-fish.	3
	OR: They scolded and threatened him; they ignored him and teased him with food held close but out of reach; this trick forced him to jump and discover that he could fly.	3
11	Inside the clouds it was black; the plane jumped and twisted; compass, instruments and radio went dead; he was lost; he saw another plane without lights whose pilot waved; he followed it and reached the airport.	3
	OR: Probably a ghost/phantom pilot or the narrator's imagination; the control tower saw no other plane; the aircraft had no lights; the instruments were dead; mystery adds to the story.	3

2	(c) Dakota — Dakota DS 088	1
3	(a) England — His home and holiday	1
4	(c) He wanted to reach home for breakfast and did not have fuel to go around — 'I'll take the risk'	1
5	(c) The compass, radio and other instruments went dead — He was lost in the storm	1
6	(b) waving and asking him to follow — 'Follow me'	1

SECTION — B — Answers — 4 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
7	(i) She held it in front of him, just out of reach, to tempt him to fly.	1
	(ii) Hunger.	1
	(iii) Only for a minute.	1
	(iv) He soared gradually downwards and outwards and was no longer afraid.	1

SECTION — C — Answers — 4 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
8	The risk is flying into the storm clouds without enough fuel to go around; he takes it because he wants to reach home and have his breakfast.	2
9	They wanted him to learn to fly and be independent; they scolded and cajoled him because a bird must learn to fly to survive.	2

SECTION — D — Answers — 6 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
10	Both involve flight and fear; the seagull conquers fear with the help of parents' tricks and hunger; the pilot is saved by a mysterious plane; the first is about learning, the second about mystery and survival; both end in safe landing.	3
	OR: Fear is often in the mind; a push from circumstances and encouragement can help; once the bird tried, it found it could fly; one must make an attempt despite possible failure.	3
11	The narrator does not know who the pilot of the black aeroplane was; the black plane disappeared once he saw the runway; the control woman said no plane was on radar.	3
	OR: He flew an old Dakota over France to England; the sky was clear with a moon; at 1.30 a.m. he called Paris Control and turned twelve degrees west; after about 150 km he saw huge black storm clouds.	3
