	(iv) Overjoyed.	1

SECTION — C — Answers — 4 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
8	He had come to propose marriage to Natalya and wanted to look formal and impressive.	2
9	He assumed Lomov had come to borrow money.	2

SECTION — D — Answers — 6 Marks

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
10	Natalya insisted they were hers; Lomov claimed documents proved ownership; Chubukov joined, abused Lomov's family, and Lomov stormed out. It reveals their stubborn and quarrelsome nature.	3
	OR: It has exaggerated characters and situations — quarrels over trifles, fake illnesses, comic insults, Natalya's switch from rage to hysterics, Lomov's collapse and a second quarrel immediately after engagement.	3
11	Nervous, hypochondriac, excitable, suspicious, argumentative, but practical about marriage; wealthy landowner.	3
	OR: Chekhov shows that such marriages are made for economic convenience, not love; the characters quarrel over land and dogs but still agree to marry because it makes sense.	3
