5	The Internet has changed our lives. It brings information from every corner of the world within seconds. Students use it to find notes and to join online classes. People send messages, make video calls and pay bills without leaving home. It offers entertainment through music, films and games. Businesses use it to reach customers. But it must be used with care, as it also spreads false news and can lead to addiction. If used wisely, the Internet is a powerful tool for learning and progress. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
	OR: My favourite festival is Diwali. It is celebrated with great joy in our home. We clean the house, decorate it with rangoli and light diyas. On the day, we worship Goddess Lakshmi and share sweets with neighbours. The sky glows with fireworks, but we try to use fewer crackers to avoid pollution. The festival brings the family together and spreads the message that light always conquers darkness. It also teaches us to be generous and to forgive. (Content 2 · Organisation 1 · Language 1)	4
