SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Ideas of la patrie and le citoyen; new tricolour flag; Estates General renamed National Assembly; new hymns, oaths and martyrs; centralised administration with uniform laws; uniform weights and measures; French of Paris made the common language.	1+1+1
16	Born in Genoa (1805), member of the Carbonari; exiled in 1831; founded Young Italy (Marseilles) and Young Europe (Berne); believed nations were natural units of mankind and Italy must be a unified republic; Metternich called him 'the most dangerous enemy of our social order'.	1+1+1
17	Civil Code of 1804 — abolished privileges by birth, equality before law, right to property; simplified administrative divisions; abolished feudal system and serfdom; removed guild restrictions; improved transport and communication.	1+1+1
	OR: The new administrative arrangements did not bring political freedom; taxes increased; censorship was imposed; forced conscription into the French armies outweighed the advantages.	1+1+1
18	Romantics like Herder held that true national spirit (volksgeist) lay in folk songs, poetry and dances; the Grimm brothers collected folktales; in Poland, Kurpinski's operas and the use of Polish in church kept national feeling alive against Russian dominance.	1+1+1
	OR: Female allegories of France and Germany; Marianne had the red cap, tricolour and cockade (people's nation), Germania wore a crown of oak leaves (heroism); they gave the abstract idea of the nation a concrete form people could identify with.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	1848 liberal attempt (Frankfurt parliament) repressed by monarchy, military and Junkers; Prussia took leadership; chief minister Otto von Bismarck as architect using the army and bureaucracy; three wars in seven years with Austria, Denmark and France; January 1871 William I proclaimed German Emperor at Versailles; new state modernised currency, banking, legal and judicial systems.	5

	OR: Italy divided into seven states — only Sardinia-Piedmont under an Italian house; Mazzini's Young Italy failed in 1831 and 1848; Victor Emmanuel II and chief minister Cavour unified through war; alliance with France defeated Austria in 1859; Garibaldi's Red Shirts took the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies in 1860; 1861 Victor Emmanuel II proclaimed king of united Italy; Rome joined in 1870.	5
20	Educated middle classes in Germany, Italy, Poland, Austria-Hungary combined demands for constitutionalism with national unification; Frankfurt parliament (18 May 1848, 831 representatives). Political: government by consent, constitution, representative parliament, freedom of press and association; Social: end of aristocratic and clerical privileges, equality before law; Economic: freedom of markets, abolition of restrictions on movement of goods and capital, inviolability of private property.	2+3
	OR: Not a sudden revolution but a long-drawn process; primary identities were English, Welsh, Scot, Irish; the English parliament (power seized from monarchy in 1688) forged the nation-state; Act of Union 1707 with Scotland — Scottish culture suppressed, Gaelic and dress forbidden; Ireland incorporated in 1801 after the failed revolt of Wolfe Tone (1798); a dominant English culture promoted through the Union Jack, national anthem and English language.	5
