SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	A novel method of mass agitation emphasising the power of truth; a non-violent struggle that appeals to the conscience of the oppressor.	2
12	It was set up to look into the functioning of the constitutional system in India but did not have a single Indian member.	2
13	A sanyasi who had been to Fiji as an indentured labourer and led the peasants' movement in Awadh against talukdars and landlords.	2
14	Salt was consumed by the rich and poor alike; the tax on salt and government monopoly over its production was most oppressive.	2

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Huge rise in defence expenditure financed by war loans and increased taxes — customs duties raised, income tax introduced; prices doubled (1913–1918); forced recruitment in villages; crop failures and influenza epidemic caused food shortage and deaths.	1+1+1
16	After WWI, a harsh peace treaty was expected on the Ottoman emperor, the spiritual head of Muslims (Khalifa); Khilafat Committee formed in Bombay (March 1919) by Muhammad Ali and Shaukat Ali; Gandhiji saw it as an opportunity for Hindu-Muslim unity; at Calcutta Congress (September 1920) the Non-Cooperation programme was accepted in support of Khilafat and swaraj.	1+1+1
17	The Act was hurriedly passed despite united opposition of Indian members of the Imperial Legislative Council; it allowed detention without trial for two years; it was against civil liberties — hence hartal on 6 April 1919.	1+1+1
	OR: Signed on 5 March 1931; Gandhiji called off Civil Disobedience and agreed to attend the Round Table Conference; the government agreed to release political prisoners. The Second Round Table Conference (December 1931) broke down and Gandhiji returned disappointed.	1+1+1
18	For them swaraj meant the right to move freely in and out of the confined space and retaining a link with their villages; in 1921 they defied the Inland Emigration Act, left the plantations and headed home, believing Gandhi Raj was coming.	3
	OR: Ambedkar demanded separate electorates for dalits to give them political empowerment; Muslim leaders like Jinnah wanted reserved seats for Muslims; Gandhiji opposed separate electorates for dalits as it would slow down their integration into society — he went on fast unto death; the Poona Pact (1932) resolved the issue.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	Towns: middle classes participated; students left government schools, lawyers gave up practice; councils boycotted (except Madras); foreign cloth boycotted and burnt — imports halved (1921–22), khadi production rose. Slowed down because khadi was costly and alternative institutions were few. Countryside: Awadh peasants under Baba Ramchandra against talukdars (nai-dhobi bandhs); tribal peasants of Gudem Hills under Alluri Sitaram Raju; Assam plantation workers left the gardens.	5
	OR: Began with the Salt March (12 March–6 April 1930); people broke salt law, boycotted foreign cloth, refused to pay taxes. Rich peasants (Patidars, Jats) — against high revenue; poor peasants — wanted rent remission; businessmen (FICCI, G.D. Birla, Purshottamdas Thakurdas) — against colonial restrictions; industrial workers (Nagpur), women in large numbers. Dalits and Muslims were less involved.	2+3
20	Image of Bharat Mata — Bankim's 'Vande Mataram', Abanindranath Tagore's painting; revival of folklore — Rabindranath Tagore, Natesa Sastri's 'The Folklore of Southern India'; icons and symbols — Swadeshi tricolour (red, green, yellow, eight lotuses) and Gandhiji's Swaraj flag (1921) with spinning wheel; reinterpretation of history — glorious ancient past of India, urging people to take pride.	5
	OR: Gandhiji's letter to Viceroy Irwin (31 January 1930) with eleven demands, including abolition of salt tax; march with 78 volunteers from Sabarmati to Dandi — 240 miles in 24 days; broke salt law on 6 April 1930; it started the Civil Disobedience Movement; people broke colonial laws, picketed liquor shops, refused taxes; the government arrested leaders and used repression; Gandhi-Irwin Pact 1931.	5
