SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	An effort to protect and promote the interests of consumers against unethical and unfair trade practices, originating in dissatisfaction with sellers' unfair practices.	2
12	Weighing less than what they should; adding charges not mentioned earlier; selling adulterated or defective goods (any two).	1+1
13	Certification by the Bureau of Indian Standards assures quality; producers can use the logo only if they follow quality standards.	2
14	Right to choice, information, redressal, representation, safety and consumer education.	2

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Individual consumers are in a weak position; sellers shift responsibility to buyers; producers are few and powerful while consumers are scattered; false claims (powder milk, cigarettes); unfair practices like less weight or adulteration.	1+1+1
16	Reji, a Class IX student, was crippled by improper anaesthesia during tonsillectomy in a private clinic in Kerala; his father claimed Rs 5,00,000; the State Commission dismissed; the National Commission held the hospital responsible for negligence and ordered compensation; right to safety.	1+1+1
17	Money order not reached; enquiry at post office; local consumer protection council for advice; fill registration form in the District Commission; notice to other party; pleads himself; judge verifies documents, hears both sides and announces the verdict.	1+1+1
	OR: District Commission — claims up to Rs 1 crore; State Commission — Rs 1 crore to Rs 10 crore; National Commission — above Rs 10 crore; appeal can be made from district to state to national.	1+1+1
18	RTI Act of October 2005 ensures citizens information about the functions of government departments; Amritha did not get her interview result; she filed an RTI application; she learned the reasons for the delay and got her call letter.	1+1+1
	OR: Abirami paid Rs 61,020 for a two-year coaching course, left after a year due to poor teaching and was refused refund; the District Commission ordered refund of Rs 28,000; State Commission upheld, fined the institute Rs 25,000 and ordered Rs 7000 compensation; consumers have the right to choose whether to continue a service.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Dissatisfaction with unfair practices and no legal system; earlier consumers avoided brands or shops and were expected to be careful; rampant food shortages, hoarding, black marketing and adulteration gave rise to the organised movement in the 1960s; up to 1970s writing articles and exhibitions, consumer groups on ration shops and road transport; 1985 UN Guidelines; Consumers International; COPRA 1986 and amendment in 2019.	5

	OR: Over 2000 consumer groups but only 50–60 well organised; COPRA 1986 and 2019 amendment — online buying included, mediation encouraged, manufacturer held responsible; separate Departments of Consumer Affairs; but process is cumbersome, expensive, time consuming; lawyers, no cash memos; awareness spreading slowly; weak enforcement of laws.	5
20	Safety — Reji Mathew; information — MRP, expiry date, RTI (Amritha); choice — Abirami, stove with gas connection; redressal — Prakash; representation — right to represent in commissions and through consumer forums; consumer education — posters, departments of consumer affairs, ISI/Agmark awareness.	5
	OR: COPRA 1986 and three-tier quasi-judicial machinery; amendment of 2019 including online purchases and mediators; RTI Act of 2005; departments of consumer affairs; standardisation (ISI, Agmark, Hallmark, mandatory certification for LPG cylinders, food colours, cement, packaged drinking water); National Consumers' Day on 24 December.	5

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
