12	(d) South Africa	Table 2

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
13	Based on prudence, or careful calculation of gains and losses; prudential decisions are usually contrasted with decisions based purely on moral considerations.	2
14	Subjects that do not fall in any of the three lists, like computer software; the Union Government has the power to legislate on them.	2
15	A system in which all work inside the home is either done by the women of the family, or organised by them through domestic helpers.	2
16	Any democratic system must allow at least two parties to compete in elections with a fair chance to come to power.	2
17	Democracy is the rule of the majority and the poor are in the majority in many countries; but in practice governments do not give poverty the importance expected.	2

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 6 × 3 = 18

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
18	Prudential: reduces possibility of conflict between social groups and ensures political stability — e.g. reservation of seats for SCs/STs avoids alienation; Moral: power sharing is the very spirit of democracy — people have a right to be consulted — e.g. Panchayati Raj gives power to local people.	1½+1½
19	Everyday beliefs — religious prejudices, stereotypes, belief in superiority of one's religion; quest for political dominance — majoritarian dominance or separate political unit; political mobilisation on religious lines — sacred symbols, religious leaders, emotional appeals in elections; communal violence, riots and massacres — Partition riots.	3
20	Contest elections; put forward different policies and programmes; play a decisive role in making laws; form and run governments; play the role of opposition; shape public opinion; provide people access to government machinery and welfare schemes (any three).	1+1+1
21	All democratic regimes 3.95; all dictatorial regimes 4.42; poor countries under dictatorship 4.34; poor countries under democracy 4.28; dictatorships slightly higher on average, virtually no difference in poor countries.	1+1+1
22	Number and strength of State parties expanded over three decades; Parliament became more diverse; no national party secured majority on its own until 2014; national parties formed alliances with State parties; since 1996 nearly every State party has been part of a national coalition government.	3
	OR: Many parties compete; governments formed through coalitions; leads to political instability; advantage — allows a variety of interests and opinions to enjoy political representation.	3

23	Economic development depends on many factors; the difference among poor countries is negligible; democracy has several positive outcomes such as accountability, legitimacy, dignity and freedom, and accommodation of diversity.	1+1+1
	OR: Economic development depends on many factors; difference in rates among poor countries is negligible; democracy has several other positive outcomes like dignity, freedom, accountability, legitimacy and accommodation of diversity.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
24	Union List, State List, Concurrent List with examples; residuary powers; Union law prevails in conflict on Concurrent List; special powers of some states; Union Territories; constitutional amendment procedure; taxation powers for both; judiciary resolves disputes.	5
	OR: Similar — both are 'holding together' federations with powers shared between central and state governments constitutionally; Different — Belgium has a community government for language groups and equal representation in Brussels, which India does not; India has a three-tier system with panchayats and unequal powers of some states. Features — two or more tiers, separate jurisdiction, constitutional guarantee, consent for changes, courts as umpire, financial autonomy, dual objectives.	5
25	Democracies are better than non-democracies in elections, public debate, accountability and legitimacy; their record on responsiveness, corruption and inequality is not impressive, but non-democracies are not better; democracy's ability to generate its own support is an outcome; people still prefer it in South Asia.	5
	OR: It promotes equality among citizens; enhances dignity; improves quality of decision-making; provides a method to resolve conflicts; allows room to correct mistakes; accountable and legitimate; accommodates social diversity; better than non-democracies despite flaws.	5

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
13	The minority French-speaking community was relatively rich and powerful; the Dutch got the benefit of economic development and education much later.	2
14	A system of government in which power is divided between a central authority and various constituent units of the country.	2
15	Bulk of their work is household-related, unpaid and invisible; it does not generate income.	2
16	Top positions in a party are always controlled by members of one family, giving them an unfair advantage over other members.	2
17	Democracy is based on the idea of deliberation and negotiation; decisions follow procedures and require discussion in assemblies and majorities, so some delay is bound to happen.	2

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 6 × 3 = 18

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
18	Belgium's community government; constitutional and legal arrangements for representation of socially weaker sections and women in legislatures and administration; reserved constituencies in India give space to diverse social groups who might otherwise feel alienated; minority communities get a fair share in power.	3
19	Areas too small to become independent states but which could not be merged with existing states, like Chandigarh, Lakshadweep and Delhi; they do not have powers of a state; the Central Government has special powers in running them.	3
20	Every candidate would be independent; no one could promise major policy changes; government formed but its utility uncertain; representatives accountable only to their constituency, not for running the country; parties gather views, form responsible governments, support or restrain government — a necessary condition for democracy.	3
21	Surveys show people wish to be ruled by elected representatives; they believe democracy is suitable for their country; support exists even in countries without democratic regimes; democracy's ability to generate its own support is itself an outcome.	1+1+1

22	Political equality (one vote each) exists but economic inequality grows; a small number of ultra-rich enjoy a disproportionate share of income while the poor depend on very little; democratically elected governments do not appear keen on poverty; in South Africa and Brazil, the top 20 per cent take more than 60 per cent of national income.	1+1+1
	OR: Democracy's examination never gets over; as people get benefits, they ask for more; complaints show awareness and ability to expect and critically look at power holders; transforms people from subjects into citizens; belief that their vote makes a difference.	1+1+1
23	Recognition of Tamil as an official language, regional autonomy, equality of opportunity in education and jobs; demand for more autonomy repeatedly denied; by the 1980s organisations demanded an independent Tamil Eelam in the north and east; distrust turned into widespread conflict and civil war.	1½+1½
	OR: Competition among parties ensures power does not remain in one hand; in the long run power is shared among parties with different ideologies; alliances and coalition governments share power directly; interest groups of traders, businessmen, farmers, workers participate in government committees or influence decisions.	3

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
24	Prudential — reduces conflict between social groups; social conflict leads to violence and political instability; power sharing ensures stability of political order; tyranny of majority oppresses the minority and also affects the majority adversely; imposing majority will undermines unity in the long run. Moral — democratic rule involves sharing power with those affected by its exercise; people have a right to be consulted on how they are governed; a legitimate government is one where citizens, through participation, acquire a stake in the system; prudential stresses better outcomes, moral emphasises the act of power sharing as valuable.	2½+2½
	OR: Recognised regional differences and cultural diversities; amended constitution four times (1970–1993); equal Dutch and French ministers; laws needing majority of each group; state governments not subordinate; equal representation in Brussels government; community government; arrangement unique in the world; avoided civic strife and a possible division on linguistic lines; Brussels became EU headquarters.	5
25	Low literacy (54 vs 76 per cent); girls drop out as parents prefer sons' education; few women in high-paid jobs; women work more but unpaid; unequal wages; sex-selective abortion — child sex ratio 919, below 850 or 800 in some states; harassment, exploitation, violence; urban areas unsafe; domestic violence; low representation in legislatures.	5
	OR: Forms: parties choose candidates according to caste composition; caste appeals; universal adult franchise brought new consciousness among lower castes. Positive: gave disadvantaged communities (Dalits, OBCs) space to demand share in power and better access to decision-making; organisations agitate for dignity, land and resources. Negative: caste identity alone diverts attention from poverty, development and corruption; can cause tensions, conflict and violence.	5

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 5 × 2 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
13	A violent conflict between opposing groups within a country that becomes so intense that it appears like a war.	2
14	All the voters in a village are its members; it supervises the gram panchayat, approves its annual budget and reviews its performance, meeting at least twice or thrice a year.	2
15	Radical women's movements that aimed at equality in personal and family life as well, besides political and legal status and opportunities.	2
16	A tendency to take a side and inability to take a balanced view on an issue; a partisan is a person strongly committed to a party, group or faction.	2
17	Democracy ensures that decisions are taken through norms and procedures, so a citizen can find out whether a decision was taken through correct procedures; she has the right and means to examine the process.	2

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 6 × 3 = 18

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
18	A third kind of government apart from central and state governments, elected by people belonging to one language community — Dutch, French and German-speaking — no matter where they live; it has power regarding cultural, educational and language-related issues.	1+2
19	No national language; Hindi as official language spoken by about 40 per cent; 21 other Scheduled Languages; exams in any of these languages; states have their own official languages; cautious attitude in spreading Hindi; English continued after 1965 following protests in Tamil Nadu; avoided Sri Lanka-like conflict.	3
20	Issues related to women's well-being are not given adequate attention; unless women control power, their problems will not get attention; hence demand for more women elected representatives and reservation.	3
21	Dictatorships had slightly higher growth (4.42) than democracies (3.95) in 1950–2000; for poor countries the gap is negligible (4.34 vs 4.28); growth depends on population size, global situation, cooperation, priorities; so democracy should not lag behind but cannot guarantee growth; it has other positive outcomes.	1+1+1
22	1956 Act made Sinhala the only official language, disregarding Tamil; preferential policies favoured Sinhala applicants for university positions and government jobs; new constitution stipulated that the state shall protect and foster Buddhism.	1+1+1
	OR: Reduces possibility of conflict between social groups; ensures stability of political order; prevents tyranny of the majority which harms minority and majority; it is the spirit of democracy — people have a right to be consulted; gives citizens a stake in the system.	3

23	Before: elections not held regularly, local bodies directly under state control, no powers or resources of their own. After: regular elections mandatory; seats reserved for SC, ST, OBC; at least one-third reserved for women; State Election Commission conducts elections; states must share powers and revenue.	3
	OR: In a unitary system there is only one level of government or sub-units are subordinate and can be ordered by the centre (Sri Lanka); in a federal system the central government cannot order the state governments; states have powers of their own and both are separately answerable to the people (India, USA).	3

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
24	Constitution declared India a Union of States, based on principles of federalism; two-tier system originally, third tier (panchayats and municipalities) added; separate jurisdiction — Union, State and Concurrent Lists; residuary powers with Union; special status for some states (Article 371 — Assam, Nagaland, Arunachal, Mizoram); Union Territories; changes need two-thirds majority in both Houses and ratification by half the states; judiciary as umpire; both levels can raise taxes.	5
	OR: Regular elections mandatory; reservation for SC, ST, OBC; one-third for women; State Election Commission; states to share powers and revenue; impact — about 36 lakh representatives, deepened democracy, women's voice (over 10 lakh women representatives); problems — irregular gram sabhas, inadequate powers and funds.	5
25	Law to regulate internal affairs — member register, own constitution, independent authority for disputes, open elections to top posts; one-third tickets to women and quota in decision-making bodies; state funding of elections — in kind (petrol, paper, telephone) or cash on basis of votes; people's pressure through petitions, publicity, agitations by citizens, pressure groups, movements and media; more people joining parties — 'problem of bad politics can be solved by more and better politics'; caution against over-regulation.	5
	OR: Functions — contest elections, policies, laws, governments, opposition, public opinion, access to welfare; rise of parties linked to representative democracy; large societies need agencies to gather views; popular participation in India — though parties are least trusted, membership in India higher than in Canada, Japan, Spain, South Korea and rising; proportion feeling close to a party has gone up.	5

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
